

A vertical toolbar on the right side of the interface, containing a grid of small icons. These icons represent various design tools and layers, including different fill patterns (hatched, solid colors), line styles, and lock/unlock symbols. The icons are arranged in a structured grid, allowing for quick selection of different visual styles for the layout elements.

